

Start a community relief effort to help those unable to complete tasks on their own. This may include completing yard work, grocery shopping, or picking up essential items". Ideas for Service as Action during Covid-19

All students should follow all guidance from the CDC, State of Florida and Orange County in regards to "Stay in Place" and social distancing to ensure health and safety during the Covid-19 Virus. At no time, should students interact with others beyond their family and domicile. This list offers service as action ideas that can be performed individually, at home or in a digital environment.

- Volunteer to digitally tutor students who need help with academic work or social skills. Take a photo of the digital learning and submit it to your counselor.
- Start a community relief effort to help those unable to complete tasks on their own. This may include yard work, grocery shopping or picking up essential items. Remain socially distant and take photos with yourself included. Share the photos with your counselor.
- Create a cookbook with your original recipes. Plan to sell the cookbook after we return to school to raise money for the Culinary Department. Share some photos with your counselor.
- Make cloth masks and donate them to hospitals, neighbors or community members. Take photos of the finished products and send them to your counselor.
- Contact teachers at your local elementary school and offer to help virtually. You might be able to read a story to the students or do a short lesson on how to adapt to virtual learning. Have the teacher email your counselor.
- Write letters or create art for residents of a local senior center that are currently not allowed any guests. Take photos, submit them to your counselor and ask the center to simply email you once they received it and share the email with your school counselor.
- Lobby city/state officials to pass laws or ordinances of concern to you. Share the correspondence with your school counselor.
- Here is a link of National virtual service ideas. Should you choose one, contact your counselor for approval: <https://www.pointsoflight.org/virtual-volunteering-opportunities/>
